

Why should the public have to suffer to protect the profitability of the record and movie industry? What happen to our rights? It looks like the FCC is up for sale much like the rest of politics. If the airwaves belong to the public, maybe it's time to take them back instead of letting the FCC sell off my spectrum.